Wow all. We had so much going on today I had to start a draft up way early. I hope I caught it all-- as usual please let me know if I didn't!

== Save OFMD Crew ==

So it looks like the sun is finally setting on #RenewAsACrew and #SaveOFMDCrew is taking their place. I'm going to include their infographics from twitter here. I'm reaching out to them regarding other socials so I'll update this once I have them. One thing I notice from reading through all this is that these folks are using our #SaveOFMD hashtag that we've been using along with #RenewAsACrew to help keep the brand up, which is great! I know that was something a lot of us were concerned about.

- SaveOFMD Crew Instagram
- SaveOFMD Crew Twitter

While our heading has shifted,
two important things have never wavered:

- 1) our confidence that we, the Our Flag Means Death fandom, remain well-positioned to save our beloved show, and
- 2) our commitment to that goal!

How you can help:

Bookmark our social calendar, and have fun with the prompts! We intentionally keep prompts simple, so bring your "yes-and" energy, and have fun!

Join the Discord and help us plan the next steps.

Follow our socials, use our hashtags, and get involved with our social media initiatives.

Suggest campaign initiatives or social hashtags. Have a fun idea? @ or DM our social accounts or a volunteer so we can amplify and support. Or bring it to the Discord discussion space to talk it through with your crew!

What we'll do:

Build a crew of volunteers organized for maximum reach, volume, and impact.

Boost fan-led passion projects that support the #SaveOFMD campaign.

Provide platforms to support this collaboration, including a new website and a Discord server.

Collaborate with everyone who shares our goal, including the lovely folks at @AdoptOurCrew.

Continue Renew as a Crew's important work and more:

- Spread the petition far and wide.
- Evolve the letter-writing campaigns to help new streamers fall in love with our show.
- Amplify our community's charitable initiatives, including Our Flag Makes A Difference and For Our New Unicorn.
- Host resources about action items, such as social media event calendars, fan choice award vote drives, and repeatable daily initiatives.

How we'll do it:

Support one another as a community through the gravy basket, no matter how long it takes.

Navigate this ship through the turbulent seas ahead, taking our heading from the tides of the fandom.

Follow the Pirate's Code that we have developed to keep us on-target and accountable to one another (post to follow)

Talk it through as a crew, developing different ways of decision-making that balance speed and democratic principles, and let us share thoughts and ideas while protecting personal and sensitive information.

Work enthusiastically with everyone who fights for the same goal.

What we won't do:

Forget that we are here not to choose the course, but to co-create ideas and help us all stay nimble and engaged as we seek our destination.

Give you up, let you down, run around, or desert you. (Sorry, it was too easy!)

All of us in the OFMD fandom are on this voyage together, with a clear destination we can all agree on:

Save OFMD and get it picked up for a third season - and beyond!

We aim to be efficient and nimble in how we sail on, adjusting course as needed to gain vital attention. But just as importantly, we need to keep our spirits up, and make sure we have time to rest and have fun together. Everyone matters, no matter how big your vessel or what your job is (including towels).

Now let's get our damned show back!

-Signed,
Your new SaveOFMD Co-Captains <3

We had the idea of getting OFMD fans who are students to put Our Flag Means Death posters up around campus. Perhaps they can also see if the LGBT student groups can help to promote the show. So we are on the lookout for students!

We also want to tweet/email at the UK TV guides to tell them how much we love the show. Getting some contacts together.

TW: There is a Spider in there, I put it near the end in case you wanted to skip by (I love spiders but just wanted to warn because I know there are some folks with phobias)

AJ McKay @ajmckay
Using a spoiler due to tarantula. This Curly Hair god-spider is named Curler (again a 9 year old is naming) and he's kind of cool. Roach would be besties with the guy I know it. Just vibes. #PetsForPirates #SaveOFMD

Izzy, why don't we have a cat guy??
