Hey everyone! Thank you for all the kind folks that gave me feedback on the Renewal Repo! I'm still getting stuff back filled but please feel free to check it out now, it's got the current events I'm aware of and I'm keeping it up to date with everything daily that comes across my feeds. There's also a contact form for anything I'm missing or you'd like to add!

== Hoist The Ads Receipts ==

So technically this was yesterday, sorry I put it in my todo folder and then completely forgot to add it! So for those of you asking about receipts for the Hoist the Ads Charity donations. There are more images on those links but I'm running out of image allotment for this post so please visit the tumblr or other socials to read the rest.

Hi, everyone! As promised, here are copies of receipts, proof of purchase, payouts, contract details, and more for what we have accomplished so far through #HoistTheAds. You will also find a budgetary spreadsheet outlining each tactic's total cost, etc. bit.ly/HTARceipts

Here's a quick breakdown of our advertising spending:

- Times Square Billboard:
Total Cost: $2,500
- Sponsored Amount: $1,000 (to be subtracted from the total cost)
- Truck: $2,593.75
- Plane: $3,088.80
- Street-Level Ads: $2,000
- Canvassing: $817.45

So the final numbers are:
Total Ad Spending: $2,500 (Times Square Billboard) - $1,000 (Sponsored) + $2,593.75 (Truck) + $3,088.80 (Plane) + $2,000 (Street-Level Ads) + $817.45 (Canvassing) = $10,000.00

Why watch #OurFlagMeansDeath 1/6: It takes its key themes of love, loss and longing, found family and belonging and sends you on an emotional rollercoaster, at one moment tender and thought provoking, the next hilarious and absurd. #SaveOFMD #AdoptOurCrew

The big article that's got everyone's attention today was this pile of nonsense from the Vulture about "The Truth Behind Max's Cancellation Spree". If you don't want to give them the satisfaction of having clicks, you can go under the cut on this post to see screenshots of the article.

This has once again triggered our fun and exciting hashtag: #OhBloysHeMad and a new one #Don'tStreamOnMax.

There are some tips from the #SaveOFMD Crew though about Hashtags and cross-posting

Also something to note....
