SOMETHING WITCHY IS AFOOT!

In the spirit of our beloved Buttons, let's put the moon to work and manifest what we all want: Season 3 of OFMD!

In many traditions, the growing moon phases are harnessed to visualize and manifest what you hope for. So let's start on this upcoming New Moon, Friday February 9th.

Find a spot in your home to set up a space for things that make you think about the show: fan art, stickers, keychains, etc.

Add in a little magic: a candle, some salt water, affirmation cards, herbs, crystals, and oils. All working towards the full moon, Feb 24th, when we'll all celebrate in our own ways: Bake Samba's cake, write a letter in a bottle, wear a depression robe and read fan fics all day. Channel your inner Buttons if you're so inclined and cast a Moonglow spell!
