== Love Notes ==

Alright lovelies, it's that time again. Covid brain is still pretty strong with me tonight so I hope I don't sound like a raving lunatic. Over here in the US it's Sunday night. For those of you on the other side of the world it's already Monday. I hope you all got some good rest this weekend, you deserve it.

You've been working so very hard at just living lately. It's tough I know, and it can really wear on you over time.

You're doing great though, you really are.

It's so hard to see how far we've come when we are living in this constant state of survival, but you know what's really cool?

There's a past version of you right now that is so incredibly proud of you. If that you could see yourself right now, they'd be in awe at how far you've come, and how much you've grown.

Where you are today will be that same person in a few months or a year, marveling at your progress. You are doing so very well, even on tough days.

Remember that. Myself and the crew are so very proud of you lovelies, and we know past you is too (and hopefully present you, but I understand if that's harder to do). Get some rest and keep at it, you got this. <3
