== Cast & Crew Sightings ==

= Rhys Darby =

You've probably already seen, but in case you missed it, here's Rhys' latest cameo featuring storytime! Nothing like a good couple of readings from Rhys to really bring out the dopamine!

== Vico Ortiz ==

Vico posted a new photo on IG today. You're welcome. <3 Src: Vico's IG

== Samba & David Fane ==

Our lovely Nicola Dove, stills photographer for OFMD S2 posted some gorgeous shots of Samba and David today on her @filmstillsacademy on IG filmstillsacademy I love this image from Our Flag Means Death. It captures not only the joyful characters from the show, but also the essence of the actors themselves @davidfane_ and @sambaschutte - fun, open, and always up for a laugh.

But it's also not the whole story. What you don't see is that an eel had nibbled Dave's toe while setting up the shot! But the show must go on, as they say.

"Our Flag Means Death is Taika Waititi and co at their best - we need more of it" is the headline from the Radio Times in the UK, where Season 2 is available to stream on BBC iPlayer.

Meanwhile, the free Film Stills Launchpad intro series starts next week on Monday 19th at 8pm UK time - very excited to have so many of you signed up already!

Jump into it on the link in the bio.

== Love Notes ==

Alrighty lovelies. It's that time again. I know it's been a VERY long week. A VERY LONG WEEK.

If you have a chance, please be so very kind to yourself tomorrow. If you can, don't worry about other people's problems for a day. Don't worry about whether or not your struggles are worse or better than any other person in this world.

You are allowed to struggle, and grieve and feel sadness just like everyone else. Your struggle is just as valid no matter what it is.

It can feel so very heavy, but please just know it will not always be that way. If it's too heavy to bear, reach out to your crew, we're here for you, we will try to help.

Find things that you love and lose yourself in them even if it's just for a few minutes. You deserve joy, and happiness and for things to feel a bit lighter.

Remember to drink some water, and go outside if weather permits. Even if it's just for a few minutes, you deserve a break.

We love you crew, every one of us. You're our found family and we are rooting for you.
