== Adopt Our Crew / Articles ==

Our dear friends over at Adopt Our Crew shared an article from Laist about scripted TV! Please visit their twitter if you have access! You can check out the article below:

Less Scripted Content A Common Theme As Networks, Streamers Pitch Advertisers At The Upfronts

@adoptourcrew

The future of scripted TV does not look good if last week's upfronts are any indicator. As streamers gravitate towards sports and live TV, scripted content is becoming less of a priority.

Less Scripted Content A Common Theme As Networks, Streamers Pitch Advertisers At ...

From laist.com

Our crewmate @ meowzawowza\_ on twitter was kind enough to share more articles regarding scripted TV going on right now.

Melissa | #LongLiveOFMD

“the variety of products being trotted out to ad buyers in the second week of May has morphed in recent years, particularly with hardly any scripted series...signs of a potential further shift in the balance of content on TV”

theankler.com/p/icymi-script...

That’s the “increasing relevance of everything live,” Paramount’s advertising head John Halley recently told Variety. “As entertainment content moves to on-demand everything and people consume it in their own pattern on their own schedule, things that are live, tentpoles and sports are becoming increasingly relevant.”

For scripted TV creators that may feel less encouraging, knowing that the people who supply the ad dollars aren’t as interested in their work as they are in a live football game.

== Love Notes ==

Wow! Today was a busy day in the fandom! I feel like Mondays always are, but today feels particularly busy! There's so much going on, and everyone seems to be having such a great time with the new press release photos that were found yesterday!

It's so lovely to see this kind of energy and love being injected back into the fandom. I was mentioning this to a friend recently... that it feels almost like OFMD itself is a giant puzzle that we all have access to, and every time we think we're nearing completion of it, some cool new footage, bts, stills, information, interviews, anything-- shows up and suddenly we have all these new pieces to fit into place.

The puzzle is never really finished, but it gets bigger and more intricate with every discovery, and I absolutely love spinning the pieces around and seeing where they fit with all of you.

Whether you are brand new to the fandom, somewhat seasoned, or an ofmd fandom elder, I hope you know that you bring so much joy to this place! I know sometimes we have our spats between fans, but what family doesn't have those? We have so many talented, brilliant members on this crew, and I love coming back online every day and getting to fit another piece into the puzzle with you.

I hope you all are having fun crew, because that's what fandoms are all about. Remember to take a break if you need to, and scream loudly all your love if you feel up for it. We love hearing it <3 Happy Murray Monday lovelies!
