#093 The Heavenly Issue

 The Cryptid Factor

Episode Description

In this epic episode we gain the second ever entry into the Cryptid Factor museum... a 135 million year old mystery! Also in here there's UFO wreckage being 'drug' out, a pigeon spy being detained, delayed phone calls being made from the dead, lemonade lazy code, a Thylacine musical, some OK ABC DNA proof and screen-shares within screen-shares! Also, speaking of ancient, we bring back the age old segment 'Noticeboard', only to promote a competitive cryptid museum... fail!

Something really cool happened -- change.org was kind enough to spotlight our petition for pride month!

Change.org 🌟

@Change

Pride Month is a special time to honor members of the LGBTQIA+ community, but that celebration and advocacy is happening all year long. Every day, thousands of people start and sign Change.org petitions to promote equality, call for more representation, and fight for human rights. We've gathered just a few of those petitions here.

To read or sign any of the petitions featured here, go to Change.org/PridePetitions.

== Adopt Our Crew Raffle ==

Adopt Our Crew's raffle instructions are up! Once you donate and follow the instructions below, you can sign up to enter the raffle here!

How to enter the raffle

Step one: Pick your charity.

Pick any LGBTQ+ charity that you'd like to support!
We'll be spotlighting some throughout the month
in case you need some ideas!

Step two: Make your donation.

You can donate whatever amount you'd like,
but remember: One donation = one entry.
Any donation amount is ok!

Step three: Enter the raffle.

Got your donation? Great! The proof of that is going to act as your ticket.
Head over to the raffle entry form and fill it out.
Just add the proof of your donation and choose up to 5 prize drawings you'd like to enter!
Make sure to remove any identifying information before uploading your donation receipt!

"I'd like to choose more than 5 potential prizes! Can I do that?"

Yes! You can fill out the form as many times as you'd like and choose additional prizes by making another donation - either to the same or a different charity! Just submit your proof(s) of donation (but make sure we can tell it's different from the other(s)!).

But keep in mind: if you win one of ANY of your chosen prizes, you will be ineligible for any of the prizes after! We are limiting the raffle to one prize per person!

"I made my donations and signed up for all the prizes I'm interested in! What now?"

Now you wait! In the meantime, we have lots of fun activities planned for Pride Month! Mark your calendars for June 30 though - that's when we'll be completing the prize drawings!

YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION IN THE FORM!

Catching up a bit on our darling @melvisik's Cast Cards tonight!

First up is Paul Williams, "the brash Bluecoat who didn't know he was yelling at a man who thought he'd lost the love of his life".

Tonight's cast card is the absolute legend Zayre Ferrer (who is an absolute sweetheart by the way)

== Love Notes ==

Happy Pride Lovelies! Happy Saturday and beginning of Sunday! I hope you're all having a great start to pride month! I've seen so many people celebrating so far and it's so heartwarming to see so much queer joy and chaos around!

I'm sending a couple love notes from others today because it's late and I'm sure I'll be up in a couple hours with the kiddo again. Please remember that it's okay if you don't feel joy right now while others do. We all do in our own time. Listen to the Seal of Feels below and let it hurt if you want to. If we feel the hurt then the joy is that much sweeter when it comes.

Happy PRIDE!

You are not lesser

You can

It's ok if you're not right now

You have every right to love

You are valid

You are never
