Did you know it's the 6 month anniversary of the first cancellation? Our AOC Crewmates sent out a lovely message.

Adopt Our Crew

We all probably remember exactly where we were six months ago when we (first) found out that there wouldn't be a Season 3 of Our Flag Means Death.

Shock. Disappointment. Anger. Sadness.

And while there's still much to be sad and angry about, six months in, we're choosing to celebrate how far we've come as a crew.

- Together, we've helped OFMD's cancellation become the poster child of undeserved streaming cancellations.
- Each week, OFMD is featured in new articles highlighting the strengths of the show, such as its numerous LGBTQ+ storylines.
- We have together launched a global movement to bring attention to WBD's mismanagement that continues to draw press attention with #DontStreamOnMax.

Because of all of us, all of you, demand for Our Flag Means Death still endures.

And while we still do have hope that one day our favorite pirates will return to the screen, we take comfort in knowing that whatever happens in the future, we've all made a difference that has made people take notice.

We are proud of you.

We are proud of this show.

We are proud to be part of this crew for now and always.

The road to seeing Ed and Stede and the crew of the Revenge again will likely be long and unpredictable as the industry continues to struggle but we couldn't ask for a better crew to clown with.

Here's to the next 6 months of holding streamers accountable, fighting for diverse programming, having fun with you, and celebrating our talented and generous cast and crew!

#MoonglowingWithPride altar ideas:

- All things rainbow and Pride related
- Solar and lunar images or objects
- Your favorite OFMD trinkets and art, especially ones that represent love, friendship, or found family
- Images of queer icons & historical figures, or photos of you and your queer/pirate pals making fond memories together
- Oranges to symbolize the sun (and pirates, of course!), and strawberries to symbolize the moon as well as the sweetness of love & friendship (in North America, the June full moon is sometimes known as the Strawberry Moon).
- Anything that is magical and meaningful to you--candles, crystals, tarot/oracle cards, seasonal objects, insane foliage, etc.

== Love Notes ==

Happy Taika Tuesday Lovelies. I gotta be honest, I'm not sure what to say tonight. I'm feeling very raw about a lot of different things, fandom related and home related. So tonight, what I'd like to do is share with you a mindfulness poem by Thich Nhat Hahn called "The River of Feelings".

" There is a river of feelings within us, and every drop of water in that river is a feeling. To observe our feelings, we sit on the bank of the river and identify each feeling as it flows by.

It may be pleasant, unpleasant, or neutral. One feeling lasts for a while, and then another comes.

Meditation is to be aware of each feeling.

Recognize it, smile to it, look deeply into it, and embrace it with all our heart.

If we continue to look deeply, we discover the true nature of that feeling, and we are no longer afraid, even of a painful feeling.

We know we are more than our feelings, and we are able to embrace each feeling and take good care of it.- Thich Nhat Hanh"

Our feelings are very important lovelies. Bad feelings are just as important as good ones. The more we understand them, the more we understand ourselves and others as well. Please be kind to yourself tonight crew. Tomorrow is a new day.
