Wanna learn what's next with how the Emmy's work? Our friends over at @adoptourcrew have put together this awesome post about the entire EMMY process. Please visit them here.

Below are some basics, but please visit the full post!

NOMINATIONS
Round Voting
JUNE 13-JUNE 24

This is the first round of voting where all national active members submit their picks for nominees. This is not the short list of Emmy nominations.

The Emmy Award is a symbol of peer recognition. The Academy has over 24,000 members, divided into 31 peer groups of specialized fields. The National Active members of each peer group vote on the nominees and winners for categories pertaining to their area of specialty.

@AdoptOurCrew

Today, the 24,000 Academy members will begin voting! With over 200 submissions, voters will pick who they want to see nominated in the next round. Every eligible voter can cast a ballot in the top 15 series races.

NOMINATIONS

Announcement

JULY 17, 2024

Nominations will be based on the number of submissions received in each category:

- 20 - 80 submissions = 5 nominations
- 81 - 160 submissions = 6 nominations
- 161 - 240 submissions = 7 nominations

Anything greater than 240 submissions and Comedy and Drama Series categories will have 8 nominations.

@AdoptOurCrew

The results of this first round of votes will decide the official nominations for the 2024 Emmy Awards.

With FYC campaigns now over, it's up to the voters to decide which of their peers deserve recognition for their work this season.

And while nominees are largely influenced by studio politics, we'll be eagerly waiting to see if #OurFlagMeansDeath gets the honor of being nominated in any of the categories it was submitted for.

Some news from the Fibre Arts Brigade and their craft auction for Pride Month benefiting SAGEUSA! They have some important updates for us! Please give them a read below!Fibre Arts Brigade FAQSage Donation PageFibre Arts Brigade Twitter

Fiber Arts Brigade
@FiberArtBrigade

For several months, the Fiber Arts Brigade has been planning a craft auction for Pride Month, with 100% of proceeds (minus shipping costs) to go to @sageusa, an organization founded in 1978 that advocates for and supports the rights of LGBTQ+ elders.

Fiber Arts Brigade @FiberArtBrigade · 1h

The SaveOFMD Crew had, in parallel, organized the separate #ThriveAsACrew campaign to allow people to donate directly to SAGE as an alternative to bidding on auction items.

Previously, the plan was that FAB would focus on managing the auction, while SOFMD Crew would manage the donation drive as well as handle social media posting for both parts of the campaign. However, because of SOFMD Crew's recent severe error in judgment, we have altered plans.

Fiber Arts Brigade @FiberArtBrigade · 52m

FAB has created our own social media accounts and we are asking other fan campaigns to boost this thread and coming auction posts.

With SAGE's knowledge and blessing, FAB is also taking ownership of #ThriveAsACrew completely.

SAGE has created a direct donation page on their website (give.sageusa.org/campaign/59220...) so that your money goes straight to them; the tier rewards of Cameos with OFMD actors will be released via FAB social media.

We hope that this will make you more comfortable with the idea of contributing to SAGE this Pride Month. SAGE is a wonderful organization that resonates so strongly with the messages of the show we all love - that it is possible to thrive and live well with your crew at any age.

And great news! They've already raised almost $1000 for our LGBTQ+ Elders <3

CANCELED SERIES

Of the 468 LGBTQ characters counted in this study, at least 170 (36 percent) will not return next year. 112 (24 percent) of those characters won't return due to series cancellations or endings.

   WHERE WE ARE ON TV: Given the continuing and escalating trend of LGBTQ-inclusive series being canceled or abruptly ending after one or two seasons, GLAAD added a chapter to our Where We Are on TV report last year to track the inclusive shows that were canceled year over year.

There are 468 LGBTQ characters counted in this report, a decrease of 128 characters from the 596 in the previous report. It is worth noting that several LGBTQ-inclusive series have been delayed due to production schedules and the strikes and will return in future reports, such as The Last of Us, The Umbrella Academy, Yellowjackets, Harlem, and more. The vast majority of those losses, however, are due to canceling or ending LGBTQ-inclusive series.

The reputation of canceling series before they find their footing is detrimental to a studio's business. According to a YouGov Survey, over a quarter of viewers wait for the finale before watching a series, and will not watch if there is an unresolved ending.

== Love Notes ==

Hey lovelies. It's almost Friday! (and is already Friday for some of you!) I know this weekend is particularly hard for some of you because of Sunday, so please remember to be kind to yourself if you can.

I also just want to say, that I know change is hard. I know life is hard. So much of life is just weathering storms as they roll in, and sometimes it's just too much.

When things are looking down, remember to look back at where you've been. I know it's difficult, especially if you've been through so much, but sometimes you have to look back to see how far you've come.

You've made it so far. You've done so many things and made such an impact on the people in your life. Don't give up being the kind, wonderful, brilliantly beautiful person you are because of tough days. One day soon things will look up. Sending hugs your way lovelies. Take care <3.
