Hey, crew. We know this is a blow, it is for us too. But now and always, we're in this together. We have created a family here, and as David told us before, we have our names written on each other in permanent ink.

And a love like ours can't disappear in an instant. 💜

dvidjenkins I can officially confirm that we've reached the end of the road. At least as far as this sweet show is concerned. After many complimentary meetings, conversations, etc it seems there is no alternate home for our crew. Thank you to all of you who sent us out with tremendous love and care. Your campaign was noticed across the industry. But more importantly it made all of us who worked on this show better able to deal with the loss.

To you wonderful fans: thank you. You are lovely and earnest. Those kinds of things feel in short supply at times. But they aren't. A love like ours can't disappear in an instant. When we see each other off in mystic, say hello. We won't say goodbye, because we're not leaving. We're just taking a breather until next time we can share something together 💜🐉👁️

📖 We at SOFMD are currently taking a moment to sort out our next moves. In the wake of the announcement, it is important for all of us to take time to regroup, together.
