In response to a documentary questioning the historical accuracy of OFMD (locate link to the documentary or post), SaveOFMD invited fans to submit evidence for the historical accuracy of the shows premise.

Avast ye! Now, listen up! We gather some people feel as though OurFlagMeansDeath isn't 1000% factual. ☐

Well, here's the deal, buckos: We've got a bunch of 1000% genuine historical artefacts and documents.

Post your own historical artefacts and documents here! (Perhaps more evidence of croc-wearing pirates?) ☐🦎☐

Image Description: Graphic promoting the PirateExperts hashtag. Still of Lucius holding Stede's journal with a light blue background. The original content of the pages has been replaced with a skull and crossbones, a drawing of a croc, a doggy with Blackbeard's face, and the text 'Pyrates wear crocs.' There's a speech bubble coming from Lucius saying, '1000% factual! Here's an illustration for reference!' At the top of the graphic is the hashtag #PirateExperts.
