 Nomination Alert

The @DorianAwards have announced their 2024 TV Award nominees, representing the best in TV and LGBTQ+ representation on TV and...#OurFlagMeansDeath is nominated for “Best Unsung TV Show”!

The winners will be announced on August 12!
awardswatch.com/interview-with...

“A lot of our nominated shows are focused on outcasts trying to punch through norms, and their own fears and flaws, to find peace—a not-easy road, but one our members obviously loved following,” said GALECA founder and Executive Director John Griffiths. “It’s fitting we’re flagging these stories on the same day, years ago, the brave souls of Stonewall—LGBTQ folks and allies—took to the streets of Greenwich Village decades ago to protest abuse, oppression and deadly hate at the hands of bigots and bullies. They, and the writers of these shows, remind us that you can’t just pout and clutch pearls if you want a better existence.”

== Love Notes ==

Hey there lovelies! It's Friday again-- and I'd just like to take a moment to really drive it home how wonderful you are.

Did you see how much money has been donated/raised by various groups over the past several months? So many beautiful pieces of artwork, and fiber arts, and writing, and commissions of all sorts have been donated to raise money for such wonderful causes-- and you know who did that? You did!

Whether you donated-- or made something to auction/raffle, or reblogged a link, or supported the artists by telling them how amazing their art/writing was--- YOU helped make this happen.

One of the things I love about this fandom is just how much you all rally together to make a difference. It's been almost 7 months since the first cancellation notice, and while it's been hard, I constantly get to see just how much your kindness and creativity continues to do. Everything listed above isn't even CLOSE to the amount donated by this fandom.

You may never know how your donation impacts someone. Whether that is youth in Aotearoa, or Queer Elders with Sage USA, or just a crew member in the fandom would really needed something you made to give them a smile to keep going. Sometimes just your kind words, or your likes can give that little bit of extra love that someone needs when the world feels veiled in shadow.

You continue to be the light we need -- and that isn't limited to if you can afford to give-- your kindness, and your love, all of it makes a world of difference to someone in this tiny yet somehow vast world.

Keep shining lovelies, you're an absolute inspiration.
