So some of the news that came out of Florida Supercon last weekend was Samba revealed in a panel that there was supposed to be an official OFMD Podcast and it was in the works until WBD said they "ran out of money". You can read the Full Article here

Our Flag Means Death official podcast was in the works with Samba Schutte - until Warner Bros. Discovery said it ran out of money

The shenanigans of the Our Flag Means Death cast & crew is just as enticing as the show itself, so that's why news of an official OFMD podcast being greenlit then canceled hits hard.

Chaos dad came out and had some commentary as well regarding it-- and Samba had more to add.

== First Mate Friday: Con O'Neill ==

There's a new trend this week! Folks on twitter have started up #FirstMateFriday in honor of Con O'Neill! There are so very many lovely tributes to him! I was only able to fit a few in, but they're all beautiful, and full of so much heartfelt love, and I'm sure he is out there basking in it all right now! Thank you to everyone who sent him some love today (and thank you to the lovely folks below for letting me share them!) Also, special thanks to RudestFish on twitter for coming up with this love fest for Con!

gin. @rudestfish · Jul 17

♥ #FirstMateFriday, for those interested in giving Con his laurels. Man is beloved by cast and crew, supports trans rights, & felt welcomed enough by fandom to share his personal journey. He's loudly supported fan efforts to bring the show back. Time to be loud right back.

@rudestfish

Happy #FirstMateFriday to Con, who has been doggedly and publicly supporting trans rights in such a visible way. There is nothing so powerful as normalizing support and letting people know that they are seen and loved.

The man really said this. To US. To all of us. To know that we are not just a tribe of thirsty adhd-prone dorks but a shelter, a source of hope and safety? It's the real treasure.

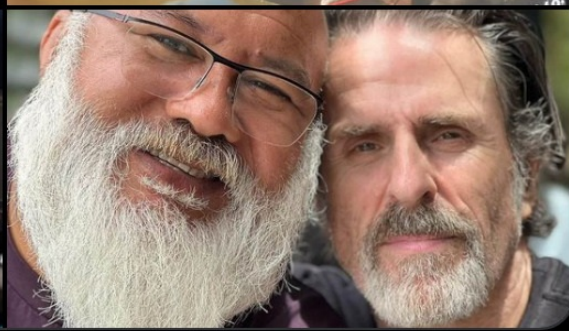

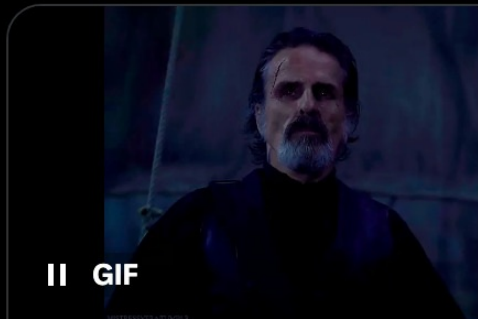

Idk if you need more reasons to celebrate the shit out of #FirstMateFriday

taylorfy @tayleafz · 16h

So happy it's #FirstMateFriday because Con deserves to be celebrated. He's such a big supporter of us as fans and as people, and I'm very grateful for that. So cool to have so many LGBTQIA+ actors on something we all like and Con should be acknowledged more for just being cool

Vico wants to wish everyone a Happy #NonMonogamyVisibility Week! They shared a lot about their history with polyamory and lots of Garlic Soup on their Instagram Stories as well!

puertoricaninja 🌟 It's #NonMonogamyVisibility Week so here's a wholesome polyam dump 🥹💞✨

I've been practicing polyamory for about 4yrs now. And while I've been posting about it since then, it wasn't until about almost 2yrs ago that I've been pretty loud about it.

It's always a little nerve wracking being so visible in anything because while there is so much celebration, there can also be so much scrutiny. With being visible in my polyamory practice, not only am I putting myself out there, I am also making my partners visible and their partners visible and so on 🥲

In my Patreon I've been posting about my journey with polyamory (reflections and musings) so if there's curiosity around that, feel free to take a peak ;) in the meantime...

Polyamory has challenged me in ways I never thought possible. It's helped me gain clarity with how I feel cared for and how I can care for people. To practice boundaries, to voice my needs and hold space for patience and compassion when mistakes are made. To love deeply and intentionally. To curate dynamics honoring capacities and to value all different kinds of relationships: romantic, sexual, platonic, friendship, partnership, loverships, f*ck buddies and so on... the options are limitless.

In this sexy dump you can see both my anchor partners Ane and Jack as well as my dear anchor friend Maritza. People who've held space for me and have been witnesses and participants of my growth and vulnerability 🥹💞

== Linds Cantrell ==

Lindsey Cantrell is the biggest sweetheart by the way and she's been so happy to be interacting with everyone in the OFMD community-- it was just nice to see her feeling included and loved (she shared this on her IG Story).

If you don't already follow her on IG, please do, she always has super cool stuff to share, even if it's not OFMD related. <3

== Love Notes ==

Hey there lovelies! I hope the end to your week was good to you! A lots happened in the last 48 hrs, and I apologize I'm so late sharing some of it. Please let me know if I missed anything!

I love how much people are really stepping up the love for cast members after all the Emmy stuff that went down. I see everyone just aggressively (I say affectionately) loving so many of them and it's so heart-warming and uplifting. I've said it before, and I'll say it again, but your love and kindness is so incredibly impactful. You may never get to see the fruits of your love (although the cast and crew does tend to show us they hear us) but know that every little bit builds up. Maybe someone was having a bad day, and seeing how much we love them gave them that extra boost to get through it-- you never know!

There is an old greek proverb: "A society grows great when [folks] plant trees whose shade they know they shall never sit in."

That is really true about kindness and support and love too. You are sowing the seeds and roots of a better tomorrow, even if you yourself never get to see the branches and fruit that love produces.

Never let the harshness of the world dim your light lovelies. Your kindness and love moves mountains tiny bits at a time.

I hope you all have a wonderful, fairly uneventful weekend (unless you want it to be eventful!) and get some good rest <3
