He also really got into responding to fans, and we ended up with some S3 and BTS commentary.

== Surprise Rhys Darby ==

Rhys made a surprise comedy show visit in Toronto Ontario a few days back! Shocked, alarmed, and delighted fans who happened to be there!!

Also, while not related specifically to the last couple days, there were some absolutely lovely tweets from folks about Rhys and their interactions with him from cons that I thought would be nice to share!

Our dear @appletooth also decided to start collecting them! Thank you for capturing all these Liz!

I just finished shooting a project with Rhys Darby (I was on the crew) and he is JUST as awesome as you think he would be. SO funny, humble, and hardworking. Kind to EVERY crew member. My favourite person I've ever worked with.

Rhys Darby is a literal beam of sunlight. A friend of a friend was assigned as his assistant for the international emmy's and he seemed like the sweetest, goofiest guy

= Cast Cards =

Slowly catching up on Cast cards by the fabulous and kind @melvisik! First up today is Antoine Douaihy, one of our executive producers! Now-- I was getting confused on the different level producers so I figured I'd mention the difference here in case you were too!

Executive Producers: "The executive producer sits at the top of the production hierarchy as it is their job to source and secure financing for production. Without them, a film or show could never be made as they are the ones who kickstart the project." - Toronto Film School

Check out the work of Antoine Douaihy of “The Good Cop” and “Black Hawk Down” in #OurFlagMeansDeath ☠️ #SaveOFMD #AdoptOurCrew

-- Line Producer --

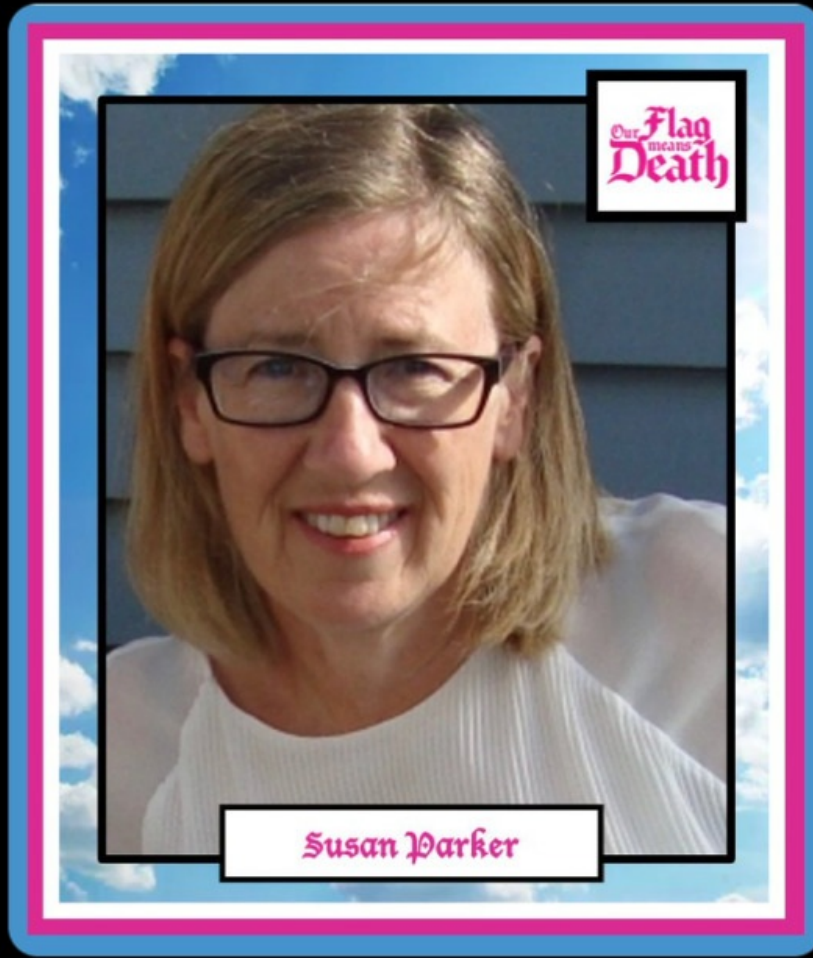

Another producer is up, Susan Parker! One of our Line Producers for the show!

"Line producers are at the heart of a production, hiring the crew, allocating the money and making sure the filming is done safely, creatively, on budget and on time. They are typically the most senior member of the production team, second only to the producers.

Working closely with heads of departments, they decide how the money gets spent, delivering the best possible product to the producer or series producer while offering the director and heads of department enough money to realise the vision." -

ScreenSkills

Check out the work of Susan Parker of “Black Widow” and “The Last Samurai” in #OurFlagMeansDeath ☠️ #SaveOFMD #AdoptOurCrew

-- Makeup Artists --

Last but not least for the night is Devan Weitzman, another of our fabulous make-up artists!

== Love Notes ==

Hey there lovelies! Gosh it's been a wild ride this fall (and spring for those of you on the opposite site of the world). I truly hope yall are getting some rest and re-cooperation time. There's been so much going on. This Love Note is very short-- because I'm overwhelmed at the moment. Please just remember that It's OK not to be OK, ya? Sit with your feelings sometimes and give them some love, sad feelings are part of you too, and the more we recognize them and give them love too, the more we heal.

Take care Crew, this is a gentle reminder to be kind to yourself today <3
