Hey crew! So I am trying VERY HARD to be better about alt text across all the platforms, and it's taking way longer for me to get things out because of it. If anyone has a good idea on how to do those more easily will you please let me know? I do want to try to be more accessible (and I know the Repo is absolutely not terribly accessible at the moment). Anyway-- thanks Crew! Happy Friday!

Apparently (and I didn't know this, so thank you to the folks who explained to me wtf was going on) apparently CIS is considered a slur on twitter and will literally make your posts un-retweetable, and so Dad decided to go full hog and cause Cissmegeddon the other day. Props to our crewmates who helped him irritate the shit out of Elon.

RHYS DARBY

THE LEGEND RETURNS

The Kiwi icon returns to the stage with a brand new stand-up show for 2025.

In a world full of AI and robot tech, can a simple dad with slightly-tight jeans stay relevant? Ancient Astronaut Theorists say yes!

Rhys hopes to prove that right now a touch of very human silliness is more important than ever! Perhaps his unique human skills, once thought of as absurd, might just be useful after all!

The TikTok sensation from the UK has come to North America! This special first edition hardcover will include a gorgeous, shimmering jacket with effects, beautifully illustrated endpapers and detailed-stained edges.

A mind-blowing murder mystery on a ship full of magical passengers. If Agatha Christie wrote fantasy, this would be it!

For a thousand years, Concordia has maintained peace between its provinces. To mark this incredible feat, the emperor's ship embarks upon a twelve-day voyage to the sacred Goddess's Mountain. Aboard are the twelve heirs of the provinces of Concordia, each graced with a unique and secret magical ability known as a Blessing.

All except one: Ganymedes Piscero—class clown, slacker and all-around disappointment.

When a beloved heir is murdered, everyone is a suspect. Stuck at sea and surrounded by powerful people and without a Blessing to protect him, Ganymedes's odds of survival are slim.

But as the bodies pile higher, Ganymedes must become the hero he was not born to be. Can he unmask the killer and their secret Blessing before this bloody crusade reaches the shores of Concordia?

Or will the empire as he knows it fall?

THE HALAMOANA PASSPORT

AT 'A NIU DAWN'

“THE HALAMOANA PASSPORT” is a moving, spoken-word, dance theatre piece to celebrate our personal journey here in New Zealand. We both arrived here with our parents in search of the milk and honey dreams. We are here to celebrate, look back, and look forward to the future with children. For this young generation, never forget our roots, island, villages, stories, and island people, as we are the people from the Moana. We are the soul, and our history and heritage are planted deep in two worlds.

== Love Notes ==

Wow, now as you can tell, a lot's gone on the last couple days! Especially with Rhys! Jeez! Everything seems to be ramping up, which is pretty great -- I don't know if you all are feeling the energy too, but it's nice to see some good things going on in these uncertain times.

I know things are still rough right now, and some of you are itching to get out and make a difference. Please know that if you are feeling up for it now, it's totally okay to do that. Find things to do in your local community, find out how to help online-- whatever you feel comfortable with. -- and if you're not quite ready yet, that's okay too.

I took two days off work this week despite having a huge project to finish, because I got sick, and my brain told me it needed a break, that there had been too much. I know not everyone has the luxury of doing that-- but if you do, please take some time if you need it.

I've probably mentioned this before, but something that always bothers me about the phrase "You can't help anyone else if you don't help yourself!" is that that's not entirely true. YOU CAN. You can do all sorts of stuff without helping yourself, and by tiring yourself, and burning yourself out. But it's not sustainable, and you can't do it forever.

You are so very strong, and I bet you could help so many people, and family and burn brightly until there was nothing left of you-- but that's not what any of us want. We want you to be okay on the other side of all this-- and sometimes that means taking a break even when things feel like they just can't wait.

We care so much for you lovelies. Please care for yourselves too if you need it <3
