More BTS from Samba's Advanced Chemistry Movie! Thank you as always to the writer, Alec Moore for sharing them! I realize they don't have Samba in them persay, but I thought they were pretty cool-- and Alec is a huge fan and support of OFMD! If you have seen the film and haven't reviewed it yet on amazon, please do! I know they are still looking for reviews here!

"When I saw the @advancedchemmov.bsky.social art department's collection of props that they brought to life from my crazy imagination, I literally teared up. And then Samba-- literally teared up for a scene. The difference is he was acting."

= Alex Sherman =

Our sweetheart writer, Alex Sherman, is campaigning for a really amazing cause. He's created a fundraiser to help sponsor a free 1 week camp for kids who've lost a parent, sibling or caregiver. They've reached their goal, but it can't hurt to help kids in need if you're interested. Alex was a counselor there in the past and he continues to support these kids <3

Hey Friends! I've created a fundraiser to raise money for @ExperienceCamps, a free, 1 week camp for kids who've experienced the death of a parent, sibling or caregiver. Check out why I'm raising money for a cause that's so important to me and donate here: give.experiencecamps.org/fundraiser/593...

Alex Sherman @CapitalWLD · 4h

I was a counselor over the summer. I saw firsthand the effect this camp has. From grief to play to coping strategies, it only took a few days for campers to open up and share feelings they've never shared before. If you've got the means, help me reach my goal by making a donation!

= Ruby Deluxe Raleigh =

There's been a request by our friend Kate aka Ophenia5wims on bsky to help out this wonderful gay bar in Raleigh. If you have some time this Saturday December 14th, at 9 PM and you're in the area, would you be kind enough to help out?

"Hey friends! Ruby Deluxe, the gay bar that hosted our Calypso's birthday meetup at Galaxycon Raleigh, is asking for some help to stay running.

If you can, consider making a donation or spread the word (or come through if you're local!)"
