Our dear Pirate Nana (amladydragonfly on bsky) had a bit of a spill at Galaxy Con Columbus, and it left her with some intense bruises! She posted updates on Bsky about them and Chaos Dad, David Jenkins sent her some love--and an invitation to join the crew! You really are badass and beautiful Nana!

Just FYI, Nana also wanted me to tell you all that she is doing much better, and is ok after the whole incident-- but wouldn't have been if it weren't for all the kindness of this fandom! She says she's never felt so loved-- so thank you so much crew for taking care of her and spreading so much love and joy her way! You truly are the best crew ever!

= Rhys Darby =

Anyone gotten a chance to watch This Christmas yet? I got to this weekend and it really was adorable. I love Rhys' character, and not just because it's Rhys, because he's a goofy adorable dude. Interested in some fun behind the scenes with the characters? Here's a fun vid below!

In regards to more of Rhys' animated works -- "Curse" was nominated for an emmy!

- Darby Daily Doodles -

Only a few more daily doodles for this year!

The Aliens break out of the Trap thanks to their new metal pal and start making their way through the Temple..

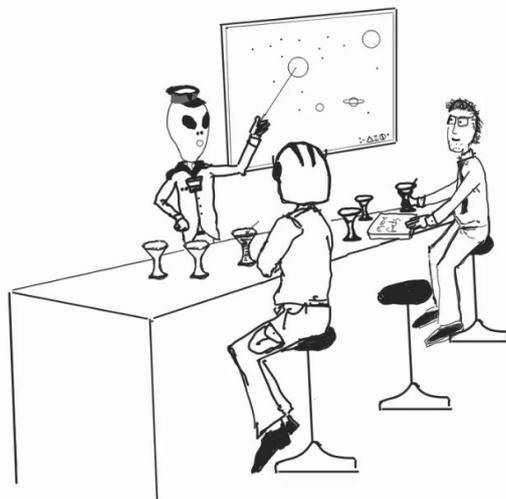

Right, our ship's gone but I have a new plan. C'mon lads, let's get to the Rejuvenation Spa.

I like the sound of that! How come you know this place?

Trust me, as an Ancient Astronaut Theorist, I've been studying these Temples for years. This is gonna blow your mind.

C'mon CF4, you're with us now!

In this, the second to last DDD of the year, we find the CF boys a few drinks deep into their conversation with the Alien Commander, who has now gone full map and points on their ass!

I like you guys, I really do. Perhaps humans aren't the total scumbags of the universe after all. So look, I'm gonna make you a deal. We've calculated one other habitable planet that could sustain us as a home. It's in another dimension but within range of an ancient human ship we've stored on the far side of this moon. If you three can get there and prove to me it's a viable option, I'll cancel the Earth invasion. Wait, where's the huggy one gone?

Buttons? Oh he went to find the loo.

I see, well... the bathroom is right next to the time travel device located in the Science Lab. I hope this Buttons chap isn't too curious or prone to wander..

“The layers of skin they built individually that then sat on top, which sometimes you might not even notice, how the contours of the skin and the dots stretch and move depending on how they like it. The work that went into it, although it seems so effortless in the shots, it would probably blow your mind how many people worked on getting it to that level and the amount of craft. Untold was fantastic.”

Imaginary Spin-Offs I'm Watching:

#16: The Wire: The Re-Up

Snoop and her new crew spent their time in federal lockup plotting how to beat the game. Now they're back on the streets of Baltimore, doing it better than the boys ever could. Baltimore PD better dust off that old basement. #Shiiiiite

Imaginary Spin-Offs I'm Watching:

#17: Cheers: Last Call

Imaginary Spin-Offs I'm Watching:

#18: The Ricardo Radio Hour

Set in 1950s Cuba, Ricky Ricardo's wacky cousins try to keep their chaotic musical comedy revue on the air against the backdrop of the revolution. These so-called strong men can take a country, but they sure can't take a joke.

== Love Notes ==

Hey there lovelies! I'm trying very hard to catch up right now, hopefully it'll happen over the next couple days as home and work slows down.

Today I'd like to send out a gentle reminder to take some time for yourself this week! This is the time of year when a lot of folks are busy taking care of others, getting things ready for family or friends, and honestly, a lot of times we forget to take care of ourselves. Take a break-- take a day off work that's just for you if you have the capacity. Buy yourself a little treat, or do something on the list of chores that YOU want to get done and not that other people need you to get done.

Some of you may have TOO MUCH time for yourself and want time with others-- so be sure to reach out if you do! People get busy during the holidays and they can forget to check on folks because their minds are occupied, but I can guarantee you they think about you often, and want you to be okay.

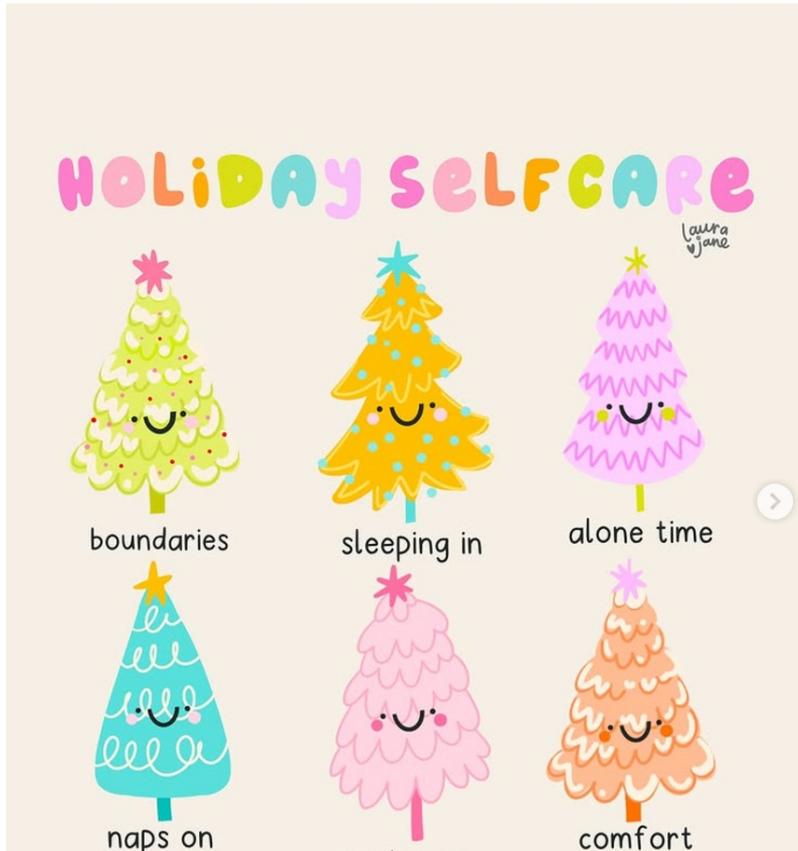

Holidays can be such a mixed bag, and not one person will have the same experiences with them, so do what you need to do for YOU. I hope you have a restful week and nothing too crazy goes on.

Rest up, drink some water, and know we <3 ya. Night crew!
