== OFMD Recaps on Mastodon! ==

Some awesome news!

The absolute sweetest person alive, Lowrah (<https://gaypirates.club/@lowrah>) has been kind (and brave) enough to join my team and create an OFMD Recaps for Mastodon! She has offered to help crosspost the recaps over to Mastodon (blorbo.social) and manage that which I appreciate so much because I am completely inept at that site!

She's also the one helping me with all the alt text (that I am behind at updating tumblr with sorry!) so please send her some massive love if you see her around because she is helping me out so much right now!

One thing to note -- Since she's on the other side of the world for me, the recaps cross-posted there will be delayed, so please bare with us :) Thank you so much Laura for all your help!

Hi all!

We're excited to announce that @aspirantabby's OFMD Recaps will now be available on the fediverse, with the help of @lowrah, who will be running this Mastodon account!

Depending on timing they may come out a little after they're released on other platforms, but they will be available here.

This account is focused on posting about Recaps for OFMD/fandom news. Recaps consist of anything from actor news to fan-led charity drives, news from fan-led groups, OFMD fan spotlights, voting opportunities for OFMD, and peripheral works of the actors. They can also contain gifs, Abby's love notes to the fandom, etc. Recaps will generally stay SFW but may dip into NSFW, in which case we will tag and CW posts accordingly! If there's anything else you'd like us to tag/warn for, please let us know! 💜

If you're behind on OFMD news, you can check out previous recaps here: ofmd-renewal-repo.knowledgeowl...

Thanks so much for following along!

== Letters To Sea For Season 3 ==

The Letters to Sea for Season 3 campaign that was being spearheaded by the darling Molly, aka a proper pirate, is finally coming to fruition! Tomorrow is the day the letters should be arriving! Molly had a special message to share re the letter writing campaign!

molly 🌱🍷 SaveOFMD @aproperpirate.bsky.social

Hi all! Now that we're past the mailing windows, I just want to thank everyone SO MUCH for participating in this campaign. I really wasn't sure what kind of buy-in I would get, but so many of you offered your creativity, deeply heartfelt words, and time. 1/4

molly 🌱🍷 SaveOFMD @aproperpirate.bsky.social

LETS GO CREW

Please join me in a letter writing campaign to try and convince Netflix to adopt #OurFlagMeansDeath! Our show's creators, cast, crew, and fans deserve a season 3!

Details below!!

Let's send some lovely letters!

It's been nearly a year since Our Flag Means Death was unceremoniously canceled by Max, but its fans, cast, crew, and creators haven't given up hope for a season 3 and beyond. To show that there's still a strong demand for OFMD and other queer media, let's send Netflix a message in the form of real letters asking them to give our crew a chance!

ALT

you want Netflix to adopt OFMD. Highlight its accolades, reviews, representation, or simply what it means to you. Be honest and authentic! Send as many as you want!

Where? Mail to:
Netflix Corporate Headquarters
121 Albright Way
Los Gatos, California 95032

When? Plan for your letter(s) to arrive anywhere during the week of January 5-12, 2025 to coincide with the one year anniversary of

ALT

Netflix was among the first three streamers David Jenkins tagged during initial campaigning to save OFMD, and in recent months tagged them again offering a "two season comedy that's available."

In Elaine Low's Fall Market Guide series, she highlights Netflix as one of the few streamers actively buying series right now. As far as comedies go, she notes they like strong showrunners and character-driven, adult comedies.

ALT

Please share far and wide! Promote on Instagram, TikTok, Tumblr, Facebook, Twitter, Bluesky—anywhere that has an audience to reach!

Share your progress, tag Netflix, and use the hashtags #LettersToSeaForSeason3 and of course #OurFlagMeansDeath

ALT

molly 🌱🍷 SaveOFMD @aproperpirate.bsky.social

Thank you to everyone who wrote, shared posts, crossposted, and volunteered to print and mail for crew around the world. It's been a whole year since the Bad Day, but it's been a joy to be reminded of how special and impactful ofmd continues to be. 2/4

molly 🗨️ 🌱 SaveOFMD @aproperpirate.bsky.social

I know it's still a long shot, but once I realized that joining another streamer was a possibility, I figured we should at least try. Maybe some random Netflix exec will be particularly moved. Maybe we'll just be a bit more visible, and folks will know we're still here. 3/4

molly 🗨️ 🌱 SaveOFMD @aproperpirate.bsky.social

Anyway, the world sucks and there's a lot of fights that need our support and attention. More are coming. But we still deserve to have our stories and art and I believe they're worth fighting for too. Thanks again for being the best crew. 🗨️ 🤝 4/4

== Love Notes / Resources ==

Hey Lovelies, I know 01/09/25 is going to be a very mixed feeling kind of day for everyone. It's the anniversary of the first time S2 was cancelled. It's going to bring up a lot of sad feelings, and you should absolutely sit with those feelings and embrace them. It was a rough time for all of us. There's no shame in feeling that grief again.

I know I didn't show it much, but I cried so many times. Seriously, like SO MANY TIMES. My parents asked me if someone whacked me in the face with a shovel (which, thanks folks, I feel so pretty) but it was true-- I was devastated. It was a slow burn for me too because I wanted so very much to keep up hope. Seeing you all really push for the show helped keep me going-- and helped me learn more about how to cope with that kind of grief (and it was grief for so many of us because the show meant so very much-- and changed some of us at our core).

No matter how tomorrow makes you feel though, I do want to remind you what came of it. This beautiful community rallied together and did some absolutely AMAZING things this past year (I wish I hadn't been sick this past two weeks cause I wanted to get you some stats).

From billboards, to faxing, and calling in to Max, and Netflix, and Amazon, and Apple TV, to raising a SHIT TON of money for SO MANY charities-- to making beautiful works of art and fiction-- to making our cast and crew (not just the actors) feel loved and impactful-- this cancellation brought SO MANY OF US TOGETHER.

People stepped out of their comfort zones-- talked to people they didn't know, reached out to streaming platforms and learned to use their voices in ways they'd never done before.

We all built our own little communities within the fandom, bit by bit-- and those little communities have spread so much love, and kindness, and made life worth living for so many of us.

It's been almost a year for my recaps too-- those officially started on Jan 13th, once again, because of the cancellation, and because of the camaraderie of the crew and all the support we all gave each other.

Jan 9 is probably a tough day for most of us, but it's also the catalyst for so many wonderful things, and I'm so very grateful for it in a way. I've gotten to know so many of you, gotten to experience your joy, and participate in your struggles, and vice versa. I've met so many people from all over the world I'd never have once dreamt I could meet-- and I know SO MANY of you have too.

This fandom is one of a kind-- and this special show and it's cancellation brought us together. I am still in full clown mode at all times, and I believe S3 is an inevitability, it's just a matter of when-- but no matter when it happens, I'm grateful we got this past year together, and all that came with it. So thank you lovelies. Thank you for being a huge part of my life, and turning it in a much better direction I could ever have thought possible given where I was.

Lean on each other tomorrow, okay? We got through this past year together, and we'll get through whatever happens going forward, as a crew.

Take care of yourself lovelies, drink some water, and get some sleep. Love you <3

= Resources =

Outside of the fandom in my day job, I work for a company that works with 211's and non profits, and so resources are really important to me. I have a lot I'm aware of, but if anyone has more they'd like to share around, please let me know! I'm happy to spread the word to help people get support they need right now!

For those of you in California or who know some folks who are-- please be sure to download the Watch Duty App, it keeps track and notifies you of nearby fires in real time.

In addition here's some additional info on go bags if you are in the evacuation areas:

LOCAL NEWS

What to put in your "go bag" for a fire or other emergency evacuation

KCAL NEWS

By Matthew Rodriguez

Updated on: January 7, 2025 / 5:20 PM PST / KCAL News

Go bags should contain the following:

- A 3-day supply of non-perishable food & 3 gallons of water per person
- A map with at least 2 evacuation routes
- Necessary prescriptions or medications
- A change of clothes & extra eyeglasses/contact lenses
- Extra car keys, credit cards, cash, or traveler's checks
- A first aid kit & sanitation supplies
- A flashlight & battery-powered radio with extra batteries

Firefighters created a phonetic list, dubbed the "6 P's of Evacuation," to remember everything that should go with you and your emergency kit:

- People, pets and papers
- phone numbers & important documents
- Prescriptions, vitamins & eyeglasses
- Pictures & irreplaceable memorabilia
- Personal computer, hard drive & disks
- "Plastic" (credit cards, ATM cards) & cash

Cal Fire also said that food and water can be put in a cooler or tub with wheels to make it
