

04/16/2025 Update

Hey Lovelies,

Sorry I have been completely swamped with family emergencies, life, taxes, the impending fall of the US and I have had literally no spoons to do anything but keep up with work/family.

Now that taxes are over I at least have some evening time to work on recaps again. I'm gonna do something a bit different.. since I'm so far behind, I'm going to try and get the last couple days out first, and then back fill as I have time (I realize this will mess up timeline wise but my adhd is telling me if I dont do it this way I wont do it at all, so I'm making compromises!).

I will try to get some from the last few days up tonight or tomorrow <3 Love you Crew, I hope you're doing okay.
