== Love Notes ==

Hey lovelies! Back again tonight. I swear I'm going to at least get caught up to June tonight if I can! There's so much going on right now with the end of May and the start of pride month.

This is a short one, but I did want to share this love note with you because I think it means a lot, especially during pride month. But please remember, if you don't feel safe, do what you need to feel that way okay? We're here celebrating pride with you in, or out of the closet-- but your safety is the absolute most important thing <3 Love you crew!
