Hey luvs! I am sorry I am nearly a month behind... Ive been sick, dealing with urgency at work and had a surgery and recovery! I've been beyond busy. Gonna catch up as much as possibly can over the next few days, and I'll be working on a big New Unicon edition.

== Love Notes ==

Hey there lovelies. Been a while. I'm working on catching up. I Hope you all are staying safe and being kind to yourself. For those of you in the US, hell, all over the world, I know things are so hard right now. I hope you know that you're not alone and I promise you they can get better.

I know you've been struggling for so long, and you've been so strong and so patient-- you deserve a rest, and please take that-- but don't give up okay? Please? You mean so much to so many people, even if it's not always apparent, and you make this world more beautiful and complex, and kind. We love you crew, please don't forget that. Things will get better one day.
